ESEARCH GLUB CHARTER NOT SHELVED BY MINORITY REPORT

How it is Combined With Achi Commission Plan

That the Research Club's charter draft has not been abandoned by the minority report of the committee of In of the charter convention is the contention of H. Stuart Johnson, a member of the drafting committee, who maintains that many features of the Research Club instrument of govern ment have been retained and com sined with the Achi commission plan. Mr. Johnson's explanation, given to the Star-Bulletin today, follows:

The charter draft submitted to the charter convention by the minority of the charter draft committee carries out the main principles of the Re-search Glub's charter, in that the principle of the short hallor form of gov-ernment is proposed and that the ad-ministrative heads of departments are all appointed and controlled by the

In this connection, it is reported that Abrams has made a partial restitution to the Hawaiian Trust Company. Comment on Sentences.

There was considerable comment about town today regarding the leniency exerted by Circuit Judge Ashford in pronouncing sentence on Hoogs and Ahrams. The court imposed fines of $1000 in reach case, while the law provides that, where they had cared for their eyes in time. the amount embezzied is more than Save your eyes before it is too late. $100, the court may impose a sentence Do not become one of those victims of of not less than 5 years or a fine of neglect.
